

Debonding and collapse of glued thin structure

Danilo Percivale

We introduce and study a model of two-dimensional structures where a reinforcing sheet is glued to a matrix: the glue and the matrix react to deformations in the linear elastic framework up to a finite threshold.